Five Injured In Crashes Here; Dr. Ackerson Hurt

A serious jeep accident on Mt. Baldy road and another accident on Foothill boulevard injured five, three of them seriously, over the weekend.

Three persons were critically injured Saturday evening when the jeep in which they were riding left the road in San Antono canyon and went over a cliff, coming to a halt at the stream 300 feet below.

Occupants of the jeep were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Strong, Electric avenue, Upland, and Robert Whitely, Venice. All three were taken to the San Antonio Community hospital.

Skull Fracture

Most seriously hurt was Mr. Whitely who suffered multiple lacerations on scalp and forehead and possible skull fracture. Mr. Strong is suffering from multiple painful abrasions and contusions while Mrs. Strong suffered a fractured left collar bone, multiple abrasions and contusions.

According to the highway patrol, the accident occurred about three miles north of the junction with San Antonio road when the driver went off the road in the fog.

Collision

On Foothill boulevard Sunday at the corner of Vineyard avenue, a car driven by Dr. T. T .Ackerson, 305 East Ninth street, collided with two other cars.

Dr Ackerson suffered a cut left eyelid and contusions. His son, Tommy, also in the car, suffered a cut right eyelid. Because of his injuries, Dr. Ackerson said that he gave his card to the other motorists and told them to get in touch with him, hurrying to the hospital for treatment.

According to Dr. Ackerson, he was traveling east on Foothill in the center lane when he struck the rear of a car stopped in the lane. The mpact pushed the car out of the lane and he struck another car in front, apparently about to make a left turn.

The highway patrol office said that the names of the other drivers are not known as they left the scene of the accident by the time the patrol car arrived.

The fog Saturday afternoon was held responsible for an automobile collision at the corner of Ninth street and Campus avenue about 4:20 o'clock.

The cars involved were driven by John Sandoval, 1378 East Ninth street and Wayne G. Jarvis, 994 East Eighth street.

Amount of damage to the cars was not determined, and the drivers agreed to settle the damage between themselves.

Herald-Express May Reopen Next Monday

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 25. (AP) Only an agreement with the CIO News Vendors union stood today in the way of reopening next Monday of the evening Herald and Express, closed since Sept. 4 by a strike of the CIO newspaper guild.

"We have every reason to believe we can set the date and that the guild will sign a settlement stipulation," said Victor Dunsmore, business manager of the Herald-Express.

He added it was hoped to reopen the plant next day.

Grigsby Transferred To County Jail

Jack Grigsby, held in the local jail in connection with a series of thefts, was taken to the San Bernardino county jail Friday by Constable George Williams, after being arraigned in Judge Fred Jacobs' court.

His trial was set for November 26. Bail was set at $2,500, which the prisoner was unable to raise. Grigsby had been picked up in Riverside and turred over to local authorities last week.

Car Stolen But Later Returned

Mr. L. Bennett, 1240 Myrtle drive, reported to police Thursday night that his car had been stolen while parked in front of his house.

Later in the evening, police found the car parked at the spot from which it was stolen. Ignition wires in the vehicle had been shorted so as to start the motor without using a key.

Communists in France Lose; Others Behind

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The communists in France appeared today to have been rebuffed as the leading party of the republic while in Belgium, Uruguay and the Wuerttemberg-Baden section of Germany, they ran behind in Sunday elections.

The French chose electors to select the upper house of parliament. The communists elected 24,544 electors and the centralist MRP party elected 24,751. In popular vote, the MRP led by 3,839,835 to 3,736,077. Neither party gained a majority, leaving the balance of power with the socialists and the Rightist PRL groups.

The rightist social christian (Catholic) party of Belgium appeared to have gained strength in the first incomplete returns in municipal races.

The Colorado party of Uruguay was leading the communists about five to one in first returns. Tomas Beretta, avowed friend of the United States and one of three Colorado candidates, was piling up a lead for the presidency.

German voters of Wuerttemberg-Baden, small state in the United States zone of occupation, approved a new constitution giving them virtually complete control of the government and elected a legislature in which the communists ran last with 10 percent of the votes.

Raise $65 for Heifer Fund

With only one school out of the four reporting so far, approximately $65 has been raised toward purchasing a heifer to send to Europe for relief, Ernest Camfield, Upland Junior High school vice-principal, announced today.

In the Junior High school the class taught by Miss Marie Ebel took the lead in raising funds with $18.04. Lewis Moore's class was second with $14.10; Clyde Frishholz's room was next with $5.70 The drive will end Wednesday and contributions are not complete.

Kevin Forsberg staged a one-man drive to put his home room in the lead, collecting $13.25 Saturday afternoon in a house to house canvas, exxplaining the project to housewives.

One heifer can be purchased and sent to Europe for $150, which is the goal set for the four Upland schools. This heifer will be given to a farmer who will agree to share the milk with his neighbors and give the first calf to a neighbor who will make the same agreement. Under such a program, the sponsors say that it will possible to replenish the dairy herds virtually destroyed by the war.

Grid Banquet for Junior High Team Set for December 5

The football banquet for the Upland Junior High school team will be held Dec. 5 in the cafeteria of the Elementary school.

Invited to the banquet are members of the team and their escorts, the school faculty, yell leaders, and members of the Lion's and Rotary clubs who are backing the dinner.

Following the undefeated season, 25 members of the team will be awarded letters. The team won seven games, losing none, making it the second undefeated season since the Junior High school was built, according to Ernest Camfield, vice-principal.

Ed Dean, of the physical education department, will be the master of ceremonies. Following the dinner, a film will be shown of the 1945 Rose Bowl game between Tennessee and the University of Southern California.

Supreme Court Upholds Public Utility Act

By PAUL M. YOST

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP) —The supreme court held today that the government can legally scrap "useless holding companies" under the long-disputed "death sentence" clause.

Putting the stamp of constitutionality on this provision of the Public Utility Holding Company act, the court upheld orders of the Securities and Exchange Commission requiring dissolution of two large companies.

The two firms, both with officers in New York City, are American Power and Lignt company and Electric Power and Light Corp. Both are holding companies in the system of the Electric Bond and Share company.

The opinion, by Justice Murphy, said "the actual and potential evils resulting from their (American and Electric Power and Light) continued existence may well be said to outweight any of their claimed advantages."

Chief Justice Vinson, new member of the high tribunal, handed down his first opinion, but three of his colleagues disagreed with his views. The court also split in the two other cases decided today.

Bullets Endanger Several Sunday

Rifle bullets, apparently fired promiscuously Sunday, came precariously close to hitting Upland residents.

A 22-caliber bullet was embeded in the outside wall of a Parkside residence Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Salisbury, 356 Parkside, notified police that her house had been struck by the bullet about 2 p.m.

Officers investigating the crime dug out the bullet and reported that it apparently came from the northeast, probably from the wash area north of Foothill boulevard.

B. F. Hungerford, 2000 North Euclid avenue, told police this morning that while playing golf at Red Hiill Sunday morning, several rifle bullets whizzed by him. He reported that he was on the fifth green at the time.

Correct Parking And Arm Signals Promote Safety

In an effort to promote better highway safety, Upland Police Chief Eugene Mueller today called on Upland motorists to observe all traffic laws, and in particular mentioned arm signaling and correct parking.

Parking on the wrong side of the street is hazardous, both to her motorists and pedestrians, Mr. Mueller said. He indicated that sections of the law covering this would be rigidly enforced.

Mr. Mueller said that lack of arm signalling and careless signalling was responsible for many accidents. He added that it was only a small courtesy to let the other drivers on the road know what you intend to do.

Illegal Entrant Turned Over to Border Patrol

Deputy sheriffs arrested a Mexican national, David Pemental Santhe Upland jail Friday night,, chez, 28, and incarcerated him in charged with illegal entry.

He was turned over to the border patrol Saturday.

Blame Few Homes For Diphtheria Toll

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 25. (AP) A rising diphtheria toll here was blamed today on crowded housing and living conditions. Dr. H. C. Pulley, acting city health offcer, said Los Angeles' 146 cases and 15 deaths this year were made possible by the closer contacts of residents.

The place was remodeled and modernized recently and its facilities generally increased. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hemsley are the proprietors.

Lewis To Go On Trial For Court Contempt Wednesday

Strike Goes On; Industrial Paralysis Threatens Nation

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24. (AP)—Federal Judge T. Alan Goldborough declared today that John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers "undertook to decide the law for themselves" and ordered them to trial Wednesday for contempt in the soft coal shutdown.

The trial probably will run into next week while industrial paralysis tightens from the diminishing coal supply.

Welly K. Hopkins, counsel for Lewis and the union, sought a delay to permit Joseph A. Padway, general counsel of the AFL to join in the defense but Goldsborough refused the request, commenting that the "public interest" requires as speedy settlement as possible in view of the mine walkout already in its fifth day.

Silent

The White House meanwhile maintained silence. Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters there was "nothing" there on the coal situation.

Goldsborough set Wednesday's trial after ruling that Lewis had not purged himself of the contempt charges directed against him Nov. 21 for failure to withdraw a no-contract notice to the government. It was Lewis' cancellation of the work agreement that touched off the walkout of 400,000 soft coal minters

Before the hearing, a high official told a reporter the government's primary aim is not to punish Lewis by a jail term, but to make a shatterproof showing that the strike of 400,000 of Lewis' United Mine workers is illegal, and thus to persuade them back to the coal pits.

Big Fine

If this fails and if Lewis is found guilty of contempt of court, said one government attorney who had a hand in drafting the government's case, an appropriate penalty would be a "whopping fine against the union and a relatively lighter one against Lewis."

With the mines shut down only since last Wednesday midnight, repercussions already were widespread.

Steelworkers and factory hands by the hundreds of thousands faced layoffs because of dwindling coal piles.

Householders anxiously eyed their own bins while a spell of winter weather swept eastward from the Rockies.

A dimout more drastic than in wartime was ordered into effect in Eastern and Midwestern 21 states tonight, and coal burning railroads slashed passenger service 25 percent.

All governors were asked by Secretary of the Interior Krug to set up machinery whereby cities could ration coal and close schools, if need be.

Plane Survivors Safe on Train

INTERLAKEN, Switzerland, Nov. 25. (AP)—Twelve Americans who survived five days on an alpine glacier 12,000 feet above sea level were safe on a United States army hospital train en route to Vienna today, rescued from their plight by the same route they got into it—through the air.

Swiss army officers in ski-equipped, three - place fieseler storch planes brought them and their baggage out yesterday in nine shuttle flights over the 10 miles between the airport at Meiringen, some 15 miles east of Interlaken, and their snowy perch on gauli glacier.

The 12 — an 11-year-old girl, four women, four army officers, two non - commissioned officers and a male civilian—had been in a sheltered hole in the glacier.

Mrs. Ralph Snavely, Surfside, Calif., was embraced by her husband, a bridgadier general and air commander for U. S. forces in Austria. She was not hurt.

Marr Will Build New Residence

A new residence, estimated to cost $6,000, will be built by Fay S. Marr at 750 East Seventh street. The house will be five rooms and bath and will be $950 square feet. He also plans to build a garage.

Freighters Sink Off Florida Coast

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 25. (AP)—Two small freighters sank in a pre-dawn collision 30 miles south of Miami early today and eight hours later a lifeboat and raft were sighted drifting in the gulf stream with about 16 men on board.

A coast guard plane spotted the survivors well offshore and some 32 miles north of the spot where the boats went down. A crash boat sped to the spot from the coast guard base.

Inter-Agency Group Will Set Rules for Making Decisions

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—President Truman moved today to purge the federal payrolls of any disloyal persons by setting up an inter-agency groups to draft a plan of procedure.

Mr. Truman signed an executive order directing the five-man committee to submit in two months a set of recommendations covering standards for judging disloyalty, who should handle the job, how to assure fair hearings and whether new laws are needed to protect the government.

The commission, temporary in nature, will be made up of one representative each of the justice, state, treasury and war departments and of the civil service commission.

To Inquire

The commission is authorized to inquire into standards, procedures and organizational provisions for (a) the investigation of federal employes and applicants and (b) the removal or disqualification from employment of any disloyal or subversive person.

The president directed the commission consider recommendations of a house civil service subcommittee in a report made public last July 20.

The president gave the commission until Feb. 1, 1947, to report with its recommendations, after which its existence will terminate.

Five Points

It is to make recommendations on these points:

1. Whether existing security procedures of government "furnish adequate protection against the employment or continuance in employment of disloyal or subversive persons and what agency or agencies should be charged with prescribing and supervising security procedures."
2. Whether responsibility for acting upon investigated reports dealing with disloyal or subversion should be left to the agencies employing them or whether a single agency should handle it.
3. Procedure for acquainting accused employes of charges and for guaranteeing fair hearings.
4. What standards are desirable for judging the loyalty of employes and applicants.
5. Whether further legislation is necessary to protect the government against disloyalty or subversion.

Proclaims Thursday As Legal Holiday

SACRAMENTO. (AP) — Governor Warren has proclaimed Nov. 28 a day of Thanksgiving and designated it as a legal holiday.

"In keeping with the glorious American tradition it is proper that a day be set apart for religious consecration and for rededication to the ideals and majestic principles which have served as our guide during all these months," the proclamation read.

Turkey Shoot Is Big Success

A crowd estimated at 300 persons was present at the turkey shoot yesterday afternoon on Foothill boulevard, sponsored by the Upland American Legion.

So successful was the affair that the supply of turkeys was soon exhausted and the food concession operated by the women of the Legion auxiliary was sold out.

Other concessions and rifle match were also conducted by the Legion. In the turkey shoot, two traps were run simultaneously and 144 birds were given as prizes.

This is the second turkey shoot since the Legion revived its custom of former years. The first was held Armistice day.

Although there is no "shoots" scheduled, a spokesman indicated that the enthusiasm of the participants and spectators seemed to warrant others as soon as the Legion could authorize them.

RING MISSING

Mrs. Thomas Settle, 442 North Second avenue, told police today that a gold Eastern Star ring, valued at $250, had either been lost or stolen. She said that it was in her closet when she last saw it.

Want To Meet Some Nice People? Just Get Yourself A Traffic Ticket

BY NEWTON WALLACE

Want to meet some nice people? Just violate a few traffic laws, such as the stop signals at Euclid avenue and Foothill boulevard.

At least this seems to be the consensus of a great many people who were given citations whils passing through the city, and who thought so much of the courtesy extended to them by Upland police that they wrote to the city about it.

If such compliments were made in trying to "square" a ticket, it would be something else, but these testimonials were given after the ticket had been signed and delivered and justice had already been meted out.

All Praised

The compliments come to every officer on the force, and in large numbers too. Upland police go to their posts, not only equipped with tickets and a pencil, but with knowledge of the community to assist any visitor they contact.

As a matter of fact, the police contact more visitors to the community each day than any other agency. They should be able to tell the visitor the population, elevation, industries and many other items that even the long-time residents often do not know.

Officers Henry Younge and E. E. Carter, because of their strategic location on Foothill boulevard during the day, seem to get the big share of these compliments.

Likes Carter

A resident of Sunland writes of Mr. Carter: "Incidently I wish to compliment your city for this officer as he was extremely courteous, helpful and a perfect gentleman and a man I would like to have as a friend."

Another writes. "I still say the best policeman I have ever had the pleasure of knowing was the one who gave me the ticket."

An Arcadia motorist said: "May I compliment you on your courteous traffic officer. He almost had me thanking him for giving me a ticket."

Pleasure

A soldier wrote the department saying: "Officers Boone and Younge are what I call 'model officers.' They were so courteous it was almost a pleasure to get a ticket."

An apologetic note was found in a letter from a Los Angeles motorist who said. "The arresting officer, Mr. Carter, was unusually gentlemanly and that made us fell doubly sorry for causing him the trouble."

A Hollywood man writes: "I'm also grateful for the courtesy of the officers, it's so seldom seen these days."

From Chicago, a motorist writes: "May I extend an unsolicited commendation of the police officers (Younge and McCarty) as being very courteous and well-mannered and a credit to any law enforcement agency."

Very Good

At Cambridge, Mass., a traffic violator said: "He was most polite and was acting for the welfare of all motorists. You must have few accidents if all your officers are as good."

After running afoul with traffic laws here, a Long Beach man said: "I wish to compliment your

Alta Lomans Give More Than $200 For Christmas Decorations Fund

MAKES HISTORY FOR WOMEN

The first woman ever to receive the Medal for Merit, highest presidential award granted to civilians, was Mrs. Henry A. Ingraham, New York City, war-time president of the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Associations and vice-president of U. S. O. Shown above is Rear Admiral Felix L. Johnson, U. S. N., congratulating Mrs. Ingraham at a recent luncheon in New York when the award was presented to her.

Many Respond, With More Cash Expected Soon

Plans for the Christmas season activities in Alta Loma were progressing this week with the announcement that more than $200 had been contributed towards the Yule decorations, with more coming in all the time.

The decorations committee made a mail canvass for solicitations last week with generous response from the citizens of Alta Loma. First contribution received was that of a check for $100 from John Belcher.

The committee estimates that the cost of the program in mind, that of placing three well decorated and lighted trees in appropriate spots in the center of town, lighting up the Veterans' Memorial, lighting the front of the Fire hall, and placing strings of colored lights and decorations across the streets, money permitting, will cost in the neighborhood of $250.

Committee Chairman Harry Merritt reports considerable difficulty in locating materials, but says that he has located all of the required sockets and lamp bulbs for the job.

Those who have contributed to the decorations fund thus far are as follows: John Belcher, Bert Bradshaw, Miss Alberts, Will Joiner, Mrs. Williams, H. Blake, E. L. Barbour, R. J. Bingham, Mrs. S. C. Salisbury, Lloyd Guinn, Harold O. White, Ernie Hall, Mrs. F. Voss, Marybell Rupp, Mrs. McJannett, Mrs. Briggs, Joe Wangler, Mrs. Harry Merritt, L. P. Vincint, and two anomymous gifts.

Chairman Merritt expects to start work on erection of the decoration December 14, to run until after New Year's Day. As stocks of decorations are running very low, it is requested that those who intend contributing to the decorations fund, do so as soon as possible.

The Yule-Tide decorations committee is composed of Harry Merritt, chairman, Herbert Blake, treasurer, Charles Lannon and Art Relph.

The first U. S. railroad west of the Mississippi began to operate in 1852.

HAS YOUR HOME BEEN BURGLARIZED LATELY? IF SO, READ THIS

Apparently some Upland homes have been burglarized lately with the knowledge of the victims, police said today after recovering stolen property with no claimers.

Another possibility was that Jack Grigsby, 23, Riverside, being held in the local jail, got his towns mixed up and looted homes in other areas.

Police have a pawn ticket showing that Grigsoy hocked a portable radio in Los Angeles which he said he took from an Upland home in the past two weeks. Police also have a fraternity pin, a lodge ring and other items which the culprit said was property of Uplanders.

All persons who have reported burglaries recently have been contacted but none claim the valuables.

Grigsby meanwhile is proving to be a popular guy at the jail, with the parole board, the F.B.I. in both Kansas City and Oklahoma City and the Pomona police all seeking custody of him. Officers from the Altadena substation of the Los Angeles county sheriff's office were here to question him yesterday. He is wanted in Kansas City for violation of the Dyer act.

He was picked up in Riverside Tuesday by Police Cheif Eugene Mueller and Det. Sgt. Henry Younge, who were there on other business. Mr. Younge's memory paid dividends as he saw a grey hat with small paint spots on it in a stolen car and recalled that such a hat had been reported missing in one of the recent burglaries.

Paul Collier Will Star in Comedy, "Merton of the Movies", at Chaffey

On December 6, the Chaffey college Little Theatre, under the direction of Ruth Tremaine Kegley, will present in the civic auditorium "Merton of the Movies," a three act comedy written by Harry Leon Wilson and adapted into play form by Marc Connelly and George S. Kaufman.

Paul Collier who will be remembered for his roles in "The Show-Off," "The Merchant of Yonkers," and "The Whole Town's Talking," has the lead again. The action of the play takes place in Mert's home town in Illinois and in Hollywood. The "kid" is spellbound by the cinema and consequently spends all of his time in the local flicker houses. He make a decision—he won't play cards with the boys any more at night. He is going to become a Hollywood actor. Merton has photographs made of himself by a local bulb squeezer and carries them with him and doesn't miss an opportunity to show them around. The boy finally arrives at the studio city and for days and days receives the same answer from the people: "Sorry, no parts today." Eventually he lands a part and from then it's a free-for-all with little homespun Mert in the middle.

Besides the play there are to be between-act olios featuring the songs and dances of the early 1920's.

Included in the cast besides Mr Collier, are Charles Adams, Gashwiler; Doris Wester, Tessie Carns; Elbert Laycook, J. Lester Montague; Lillian Schafer, Montague's girl; Richard Geiger, Elmer Huff; Herbert Moffitt, Sigmond Rosenblatt; Jim LaMar, Harold Parmalee; Harry Renek, Weler; Bill Seay, cameraman; Shirley Stewart, Beulah Baxter; Phyllis Spotswood, Mrs. Patterson; and Geraldine Ramsland, casting director.

People outside the cast involved in the production of the play are: Earl Schonoman, business manager; Colleen Cowells, Kathrine Sibley, Valerie Fairfield, properties and decorations.

Music for the night will be directed by Shirley Snider and S. Earle Blakeslee and dances will be supervised by the Dorothy Williams studios.

TO STAY OPEN

All of OPA's rent offices throughout Southern California will definitely remain open after December 1, it was announced today by Ben C. Koepke, Southland OPA Rent director.

"Control of rents on all housing accommodations remains necessary at this time," Koepke said, "consequently all of our 13 offices will remain open."

SIMPLICITY KEYNOTES WEDDING OF HAZEL MILLER TO ERNEST GIBSON

In the presence of members of the immediate families, Hazel G. Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Miller, 535 North First avenue, yesterday spoke her vows with Ernest H. Gibson, 555 North Eighth avenue.

Scene of the double-ring ceremony was the Little Cathedral of the Foothills, which was decorated with two large baskets of white chrysanthemums, gladioli and fern and with candelabra on the altar and organ.

Musical selections the couple chose to be played by the organist, Thomas Sisto, were "Through the Years", "Because", "To Each His Own", "Always", and the traditional wedding march from Lohengrin.

For the rites, performed by Dr. Samuel Hughes, pastor of the church, the bride wore a blue suit with black accessories. An orchid corsage formed the bridal flowers and the bride's jewelry, a strand of pearls, was a gift of the bridegroom.

Following the church rites, a wedding dinner was held at Claremont Inn. Chrysanthemums were again used in decoration, combined with sweet peas and fern and with candles.

The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. R. H. VandenBerg, Alhambra, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Ronald Gibson, Los Angeles. Mrs. Lula Schlecht, aunt of the bride, took charge of the guest book.

The couple left immediately after the dinner for an unannounced destination, and will be at home on their return at 555 North Eighth avenue.

Both the bride and groom were employed at the Empire Realty and Insurance company.

Bazaar Reported Success; $375 Net Expected

The church bazaar put on last week at the Cucamonga Community church by the Women's Society of Christian service has been acclaimed a success and rightly so since the net profits are expected to run over $375.

Various types of hand work—aprons, tea towels and other fancy work—Christmas cards, and decorations, and food were sold from numerous booths. A fish pond was a special treat for the children.

A turkey dinner was enjoyed by about 150 people with tickets for the dinner being sold out far in advance of the event. Mrs. John G. Stoebe took charge of dinner preparations and the meal was served by the girls of the church's Young Adult class.

Train Baby-Sitter Yourself Is Advice From AP Newsfeature

AP Newsfeatures

What with the shortage of domestic help and the abundance of babies in the U.S.A., the business of baby sitting bids fair to become a major item in the realms of big business.

In order to gain any peace of mind, mother wants to be sure she is leaving Junior in capable hands when she sets out for a few hours of relaxation. And the only way she can be sure of this is to train a stand-in herself.

It's a good idea for the conscientious mother to pick out an intelligent teen-ager in the neighborhood, and give her a period of training in baby care before she leaves small fry in her care. The teen-ager might be invited in a time or two before the mother plans to go out, to watch the preparation of the formula, the technique of diaper changing, the ritual of the bath and the best method of inducing baby to take his bottle.

It's a good idea to simplify things for the sitter by leaving a pile of folded clean diapers and other items in plain view in the baby's room.

Try to encourage your sitter to be eager for a return engagement by leaving plenty for her to eat and invite her to turn on the radio or phonograph.

Your foresightedness will pay good dividends.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A court injunction (order) to prevent a strike is sheer poison to organized labor.

That's why the CIO and AFL so bitterly blasted the government for seeking a federal injunction to prevent the coal miners' walkout.

What happened was this:

The government went into federal court Nov. 18. It asked the judge for an injunction against Lewis.

It wanted the injunction to stop Lewis from ending his contract to mine coal for the government and from encouraging his miners to walk out.

Instead of issuing an injunction right away, the court sisued a temporary order teling Lewis not to do those things.

The court told Lewis to appear in court Nov. 27 to show cause why the judge shouldn't issue an injunction, which would last longer than just a temporary order.

Without going into all the details which followed, that's where the case stood—a temporary order against Lewis, maybe to be followed by an injunction—when the CIO and AFL screamed.

Here's the history behind the scheam.

Organized labor has had an uphill struggle in this country. For most of our history the courts have been on the side of the employers.

Until the 1880's unions were often prosecuted as conspiracies. Then the courts clouted unions on the head by issuing injunctions.

(An injunction is a court order forbidding a man or group of men to do something. For example: striking.)

The court's view—meaning the judges' view—was this: The right to do business is a property right. If a man can't do business—say, because of a strike—he suffers a property loss.

Congress in 1932 passed the Norris-LaGuardia act—a very famous act in labor history—which puts a stiff limit on the use federal courts can make of injunctions in labor disputes.

Many state adopted similar laws. And that pretty well put an end to the injunction as a powerful anti-union weapon, a weapon freely used by courts and employers for 50 years.

The Spirit of Christmas—

There is something about the Holiday season of the year that draws men closer together, filled with the joy of living in a Christian world. Next door neighbors, who might never speak throughout the rest of the year, turn to one another with a joyous greeting of "Merry Christmas" spoken with a depth and warmth of feeling that comes straight from the heart. We forget our petty differences and are united together in common worship that is expressed through acknowledgment of a living God that gave His own Son to a world lost in sin.

To many this knowledge is forgotten throughout the rest of the year, and is brought to mind only through the Spirit of Christmas.

The Spirit of Christmas is infectious. It passes from one to another through expressions of faith that are voiced audibly by word of mouth, and inaudibly from hearts that are warm with love for our fellowmen.

Communities can and do take up the Christmas spirit and pass it on to the individuals through gay, festive holiday decorations that serve to remind once again the Holiday Season is at hand.

To further spread the Spirit of Christmas, we urge all residents to join in with home decorations—colored lights, garlands, wreaths, trees, Christmas scenes or just a sprig of holly.

This is a warm, friendly community. Let us display this fact with home decorations this Holiday Season.

EX-SLAVE, 106, BUYS LOT IN "THE GREEN PASTURES"

SIOUX CITY, Ia.—Lee Moore, a former slave who has attained the unusual age of 106, is taking no chances. When he dies, there will be a plot of ground ready for him and a headstone to mark it. He came to Sioux City recently for just that purpose and invested his last $300 in the lot and stone.

Moore carries a manila pouch in his pocket containing receipts for his purchases and to make sure instructions for his burial do not become illegible, the envelope contains a metal plate on which have been printed his last wishes and a photo of the old Negro.

Moore was born in Buenos Aires, he said, on July 12, 1840. At the age of 17, "when Buchanan was president," he came to the United States. Because he was unable to pay his passage, the ship's officers sold him as a slave. He remained a slave until freed by the Civil war.

The thin old man, who wants to bury himself "without help from any county or state," is in search of light work. He was refused a state pension because he had papers in his pocket showing he was the owner of property worth $309. But that

MALENKOV GETS IN LINE AS STALIN "SUCCESSOR"

Æ Newsfeatures

MOSCOW —Georgii Maximilianovich Malenkov, who was recently appointed to the important Council of Ministers, has been spoken of in British quarters as a possible successor to Prime Minister Joseph Stalin himself.

Though now only 45 years old, Malenkov fought through the Russian Revolution as a volunteer and joined the Communist Party in 1921, thereafter climbing rapidly to political power. His new job puts him in the top executive body of the U.S.S.R.

Before being relieved of his duties in the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet to become a vice chairman of the ministerial council, he had been one of the secretaries of the central committee of the Communist party, a member of the organizational bureau of the party and a member of the politburo.

In one of his most recent public speeches, the sandy-haired, firm eyed organizer said, "It is no secret that friends respect us because we are strong."

When Germany attacked the Soviet Union in 1941, he became a member of the state committee for defense. His work in increasing the production of planes won him the Order of Lenin and later the award of Hero of Socialist Labor.

As a vice chairman of the council, Malenkov will be working with the top leaders. Beside Stalin, his colleagues are: Foreign Minister V. I. Molotov, L. P Beria, Andrei Andreyev, A. I. Mikoyan, Alexei Kosygin, L. M. Kaganovich.

officers in acting like human beings even when apprehending a traffic violator. I have seen so much of the disgusting strut on the part of police officers that to have one approach in the manner of a gentleman is actually something."

A Redlands violator writes: "In giving the ticket, Police Officer Owens showed himself to be a courteous, efficient officer and a gentleman. It's a pleasure to meet such an officer."

A Pasadena lady writes. "Thanks to Mr. Carter for being so very nice to me."

Fine Officer

From Inglewood, a motorist told the department: "I would like to congratulate you upon having such a fine, courteous police officer as Mr. Trammell on the force."

Of Officer Quesada, a motorist said: "I want to say a word of recommendation for the officer for he proved to be very courteous and certainly a good sport."

There are many more such letters in the files of the police and they continue to pour in daily. Evidently the local officers aren't the tough cops in the pictures who start it off with "Where's the fire, Bud?" Personally I'll take these testimonials at their face value, but if you want to find out for yourself about the courtesy of the Upland police, there is one way to do it, but frankly we don't recommend it.

Needed Medicines Sold in China

SHANGHAI, (Æ)—The Shanghai Evening Post & Mercury reports that large quantities of narcotics, surgical instruments urgently needed in the United States, surgical dressings made by American housewives and medicinal brandy have been sold as surplus to Chinese merchants.

The newspaper declared that all of these items except brandy were sold in violation of specific regulations of the U. S. Foreign Liquidation commission.

Around Town

BY THE TOWNSMAN

Local football fans did a lot of traveling during the weekend. There was the Tiger game at San Bernardino Thursday night, the Panther tilt at Riverside Friday and the UCLA-Trojan battle Saturday afternoon.

In spite of the rain there were good-sized delegations from Upland, Ontario as well as Cucamonga and Alta Loma at the coliseum. And just to prove what a small world it is, after all, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Rogers found Eddie Mahan, Manager of the Bank of america in Cucumonga, seating right next to them.

George Cathcart did all right as far as the Bruin-Trojan game was concerned. He managed to get a few extra tickets and you know what anybody with a few spare pasteboards for that game could do.

In addition to a lot of local people the American Legion turkey shoot drew several celebrities, among them Lela Hall, world's famous trap shooter from Long Beach. From all reports we received, she did all right, too, winning several turkeys.

Now that Harold Bakken has fallen heir to some furniture, nothing should hold him back from taking that all-important step that he has been contemplating for some time.

Success again in '46.....

...but what will happen in 1947?

Once again the value of a grower-owned citrus fruit canning and processing plant has been proven. The 1946 marketing program of this cooperative brought maximum returns to its members, even though sizes of fruit were in large measure undesirable.

In the uncertain years to come, when great changes in marketing fruit are likely, the knowledge, prestige, and resources of M.O.D. will mean increasing benefits to its members.

It will pay you to investigate the complete marketing facilities of this modern growing and marketing cooperative.

BY DON BENSON

While the Pacific Coast conference "begged" different schools from the "Big Nine" to play in the world-famous Rose Bowl for many years, the "shennagians" pulled this year will cause plenty of sputtering from local fans.

A proposal was sent East that would have the Big Nine sign an agreement with the P.C.C. for a five year contract, with the Big Nine to send its winner for the first three years, and to select "outside" or optional choice in the remaining two years.

When first presented, each of the Big Nine was leisurely polled. No hurry, they seemed to say. You would hear one week that this school said "yes," then two weeks or so another school said "no," and so it went, with the "yes's" leading.

Then, when it became known that Army's great team would be very happy to play in the Rose Bowl, the remaining Big Nine schools voted faster than an old-time Tammany machine in favor of the 5-year plan!

The Pacific Coast conference still had to meet and approve the contract and when the contract would go into effect. They could have, if they had so desired, made the contract effective after Jan. 1, 1947, this permitting Army to play. But no, they impolitely, to put it very, very mildly, slammed the door on the great Army team by voting to have the contract effective Jan. 1, 1947."

Only U.S.C. and UC.L.A. voted against immediate acceptance of the Big Nine pact, according to Bill Ackerman, U.C.L.A. grad. manager.

It was not known why the remaining schools voted as they did, but they certainly threw a "spit-ball curve" at hundreds of thousands of football fans who had hoped Army, with its fabulous record and local Glenn Davis and bone-crushing "Bo" Blanchard and Co. would play their last game in the Bowl at Pasadena. (Wonder how the "powerful" Montana and Idaho voted???)

As Sports Editor Paul Zimmerman of the L. A. Times so cleverly put it, after blasting the P.C.C. "The Rose Bowl is dead, long live the Rose Bowl."

To make matters worse, it looks as if Illinois would be the Big Nine choice, if they beat Northwestern Saturday, Illinois, soundly beaten by Notre Dame, voted against the Rose Bowl. So if Illinois wins, we'll have a team that voted against coming but still making the trip (for a round sum of $100,000). Illinois might meet U.C.L.A., if they are selected, which would be ironical perhaps to the Illinois fleet back, colored Buddy Young.

While Mr. Young, who stands 5 ft. 5 inches tall and weighs 160 pounds, was cavorting for the Fleet City service team last year, talks was that Young would appear at U.C.L.A. to follow in the steps of other colored greats at Westwood, namely, the great Kenny Washington, Woody Strode, the sensational all around athlete, Jackie Robinson. But he returned to Illinois, so it might be he'll be seen New Year's Day.

As another L.A. scribe put it. "It looks like the P.C.C. is stabbing the nation's biggest Bowl game by their pussy-footing antics." To this, I say—Amen.

Now that we've got the muddled Rose Bowl situation off our chest, let's take a peek at the local basketball situation.

Coach Karl Kaiser, the Chaffey high school coach since way back in the middle 20's, (I think it was 1925 or '26) had a turnout of 80 aspirants. Karl, who has won more C.B.L. basketball titles than I have hair, wasn't too optimistic concerning the 1947 race. Kaiser will have four lettermen returning, with Don Lucas, John Whitham and Jimmy Acosta still wearing football suits.

While it's far to early to know the strength of other teams, it isn't too early to say that Kaiser will have a team that will more than take its share of victories.

Coach Kaiser is one of the very few coaches that keeps winning year after year. Although a veteran of around 20 years in C.B.L. coaching circles, no school in the C.B.L. has a record equal to Chaffey's, thanks to Karl's Kanny Knacks at the casaba art.

As for the college division, Harvey Shirk is keeping quiet and working hard. After the Chaffey J.C. Invitational tournament, starting Dec. 18th, we'll know more about the J.C. team. Reports seeping out have been that Shirk will have lots of men but whether he'll have enough time before the tournament to reach proper form or not, is something else.

Quite a few of Ray Rosso's pigskin lovers will be out for the team, but with tentative post-season games in the air, might not have time to change from kicking to ball, to shooting it! It looks like a Great Sports Year at Chaffey.

Three Army Men On Honor Backfield

NEW YORK, Nov. 25. (AP)—Three members of Army's regular backfield, Arnold Tucker, Glenn Davis and Felix Blanchard—are on the Associated Press' All-Eastern college football team announced today after consultation with coaches, scouts and reporters.

Along with that trio on the first team is another of their cadet playmates, Henry Foldberg, at end.

Anthony (Skip) Minisi, Pennsylvania, completes the first team backfield, while two other Quakers, Charles Bednarik at center and Bernie Gallagher at tackle, also are on the first list.

The honor team is completed with William Swiacki, Columbia, at the end post opposite Foldberg; Frank Wydo, Cornell, filling the other tackle post, and Frank Barziauskas, Yale, and Emil Drvaric, Harvard, stationed at guard.

SHOES TOO BIG

NEW HAVEN, Conn.(AP)—Mike Karakas, Providence netminder, looked bad against the New Haven Ramblers in a recent game when they blasted seven goals past him. Spectators didn't know, however, that Mike was playing with shoes and skates several sizes too large, his own having been lost in transit.

HOW'S THAT AGAIN?

WILLIAMSBURG, (AP) — Bob Cheves, head football coach of the Fort McClellan, Ala., Riflemen, is a hard man to convince. His soldier footballers lost a 61-0 game to William and Mary. Cheves comment:

Chaffey Panthers Win Orange Empire Title As They Nose Out Riverside Tigers, 19-18

Spirited and Aggressive Riverside Team Almost Upsets Local Eleven

By STEVE KALAGIAN

A guy named Jordon put on a demonstration of shifty and lightning-like running and almost upset the title hopes of Chaffey college Friday night, but the Panthers managed to squeak through to a victory and the Orange Empire conference championship as they defeated a spirited and aggressive Riverside team, 19-18.

It was the toe of Jack Williams that proved to be the difference between the two teams as they put on a scoring rampage in the first half that had all the earmarks of turning the game into a toe-to-toe slugfest.

But the Panthers had sharpened their claws during the rest period between halves and although Jordan and Martin, speedy Riverside backs, continued to break away for several long gains, the Chaffey line molded itself into a stone wall in their own territory and held the Tigers scoreless during all of the second period.

Score First

Riverside scored first early in the second quarter when they took over on the Chaffey 31, right after the Panthers had kicked out of danger from their own one-yard line.

The shifty Jordan shot through center for 15 yards after Gripkey had made five, bringing the black and white pigskin to the 13. It was Jordan again as he sliced off five very important yards and on alternate line bucks by Martin and Gripkey the former scored from the 1½-inch line. Deleo's kick failed to clear the uprights and the fighting and determined Tigers were out in front, 6-0.

Apparently that was what the Panthers needed. With the Orange Empire football crown within their grasp, Coach Ray Rosso's eleven got that one back and quick. Receiving the kickoff from Riverside on their own 40, the Panthers moved down the field through the air for the score. After Bob Hardy had smashed his way through for eight and a first down, Anse McCullough flipped a pass to Nixon which was good for 15.

Then came a sensational catch by Bob Sachs, of Upland, who made a one-handed snag of a high pass and traveled nearly 10 more yards for a total gain of 25, bringing the ball to the 23. After two other passes had failed, Nixon pulled one down that had "touchdown" written all over it and stepped over for the score.

Important Kick

Then came the all-important extra point which Jack Williams booted right over the uprights for the point that was to be the margin of difference between the two teams and give the Panthers the league championship.

The shouts of Chaffey rooters had barely died down, however, when the fast-moving Tigers hit pay dirt again to go out in front. Jordan took the kickoff on his own 40 and broke loose for 20 yards before he was knocked out of bounds by Williams. It was Jordan again who got out in the clear through the hole at left tackle and skirted to the Chaffey 34 befofre he was stopped. Halfback Martin took matters in his own hands a second later and went all the way.

It sounds almost impossible now, but with a little over two minutes left in the half, each team scored again. A long pass from Quarterback Kring to Sachs was good for 31 yards and brought the Panthers knocking on the Riverside gates again right on the 24. The Panthers didn't waste any time after that. Nixon took a pass from Kring on the four and ran over as the Tigers piled all over him.

Catches Pass

Chaffey was out in front again by a single point, but not for long. Deleo took the kickoff on his own 39 and after going about 15 yards lateralled to the "flying" Jordan, who went to the Chaffey 20 before he could be stopped. Cowser pulled down a 22-yard pass from Nordlund, the end, in the end zone and the Tigers lead 18-13 as the half ended.

It was a fumble by Martin on his own 24 right at the beginning of the second half that gave the Panthers the break they needed. Sachs, who played brilliantly all night, fell on the ball in the scramble. Then he made sure of the outcome by taking a pass and carrying the ball to the 13. Big Mike Carew ploughed his way around left end to the two and first down. It was Carew again who smashed his way to the 1½-foot line, from which point Mendez went over.

Defense Good

It was a give and take proposition after that, with the Panther line taking on new life and outcharging the Riverside line to throw Jordan and Martin back for losses. Finding their way now blocked on the ground, the Tigers took to the air but the Chaffey pass defense, ineffectual during the first half, was back to its usual self again and several interceptions brought the Tiger threats to a sudden halt.

The Panthers had just thrown Jordan back for a 10-yard loss on his own five when the gun boomed over the Riverside bowl sending the determined Chaffey team home with the Orange Empire championship. It was a well-earned victory and as the score indicates it was a rough and tumble battle all the way. Very few people left the stands until the end of the game because although Riverside was held scoreless in the second half they were a dangerous threat always.

It was a close shave for the champion Panthers but in all fairness to them it must be admitted that Riverside probably outdid itself. It was in the mood for an upset and pretty nearly succeeded.

UCLA - Trojan Game Masterpiece Of Strategy That Won Rose Bowl Bid

BY STEVE KALAGIAN

There no doubt were a lot of disappointed people among the 93,000 fans who braved the foul weather Saturday afternoon to see the UCLA Bruins get to the Rose Bowl via the defensive route.

But whether the spectators were disappointed or not, the strategy used by Coach Bert LaBrucherie, nevertheless, paid off and that after all was what the Bruins were after—a victory over the revived Trojan team which had held the "jinks" on them for so many years and a chance to be one of the two teams featured in the annual Tournament of the Roses on New Year's Day.

The Bruins had their orders and they carried them out to the letter. They took no chances on the wet, soggy field and frequently punted on second down and always on third. For time it seemed as if the "big game" would settle down to being no more than a punting duel and basically perhaps that was about all it was.

Much to Gain

Of course, the Trojans had everything to gain and nothing to lose and they could afford to take a few risks. A pass resulted in the only touchdown and other aerial thrusts threatened the Bruins in several other instances. But the UCLA had been instructed in defensive tactics for this game and they performed brilliantly in this department. As for any display of offensive power, the boys from Westwood just didn't show any. As the 13-6 score indicates, they didn't have to. They waited for the "breaks" and made both of them count on the scoreboard.

The first one came on the 12th play of the game. Verl Lillywhite starting quarterback for the Trojans, attempted to punt from his own 25 but the kick was blocked by Bill Chambers, UCLA tackle, and quick as a flash Don Malmberg, the other tackle, picked up the slippery ball and raced 16 yards for the touchdown.

Made Break

A bit more strategy may have made the second break for the UCLAans. In the fourth quarter, the Bruins rooters went wild when Cal Rossi suddenly was sent into the game. Whether he was in condition to play at all is questionable but as a morale builder it apparently turned the trick. For just a few seconds later McCardle was tackled so hard near his own goal line that he fumbled the ball and the Bruins recovered on the five from which point they pushed over their winning touchdown.

So, even though Southern California may have shown more offensive power at the colliseum last Saturday, it was UCLA who won the ball game. The Bruins apparently wanted the Rose Bowl bid this year in a pretty bad way and they got what they went after. Apparently, the fact that they are going to have to play Illinois instead of Army did'nt make too much difference, Los Angeles sports writers notwithstanding.

Two Battle for End Positions

BY FRANK ECK

There's a merry battle on for All-America end positions and two of the outstanding flankers in the country are Hubert Bechtol of the University of Texas and Barr Baldwin of the University of California at Los Angeles. Both play left end. Incidentally, so does Mr. Barney Poole of Army.

Bechtol is seeking one of the two end positions on the Associated Press All-America for the third time. He made the last two

Hub, one of the best pass catchers in the southwest, is a 20-year-old senior from Lubbock, Tex., stands one inch over six feet and it's the best

Baldwin is more matured, having returned to UCLA after service in the Army. He is 24, comes from Bakersfield and is six-foot-one. Baldwin, a senior, has won two other football letters playing for the Bruins.

THOSE SCALPERS AGAIN

ELKHART, Ind. (AP)—In an effort to control a scalp ringworm epidemic Elkhart health authorities have been placing stocking caps on infected school children and directing them to remain away from school.

They learned that some of the uninfected pupils, hoping for a vacation, were offering ringworm victims from 10 to 25 cents for the stocking caps.

PEOPLE'S CHOICE

MANKATO, Minn. (AP)—Sheriff-elect Edwin F. "Mickey" Date says that since his election a week ago he's been kept busy answering telephone calls.

And, he said, not all of the callers were congratulating him on his election as Blue Earth county sheriff.

Most of them wanted to rent his apartment when he moves into the sheriff's quarters in the county jail.

United States Calls For Disarmament Discussion

Asks U.N. to Bring Matter In Open Now

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., NOV. 25 —(AP)—The United States called on the United Nations today to open discussions immediately on the "whole problem of disarmament" and demanded that a proposed international troop inventory be made all-inclusive as a preparatory step.

Sen. Tom Connally (D-Tex), Speaking before the 54-nation political committee of the general assembly, urged that all members of the U.N. make available within 30 days full information on all troops at home and abroad.

He sidestepped a definite stand on a proposal made by Philip J. Noel-Baker, British air Minister, a few minutes earlier that the data submitted in the troop inventory be subject to verification by a U.N. inspection unit. Connally declared, however, inspection and verification were necessary to any general disarmament plan.

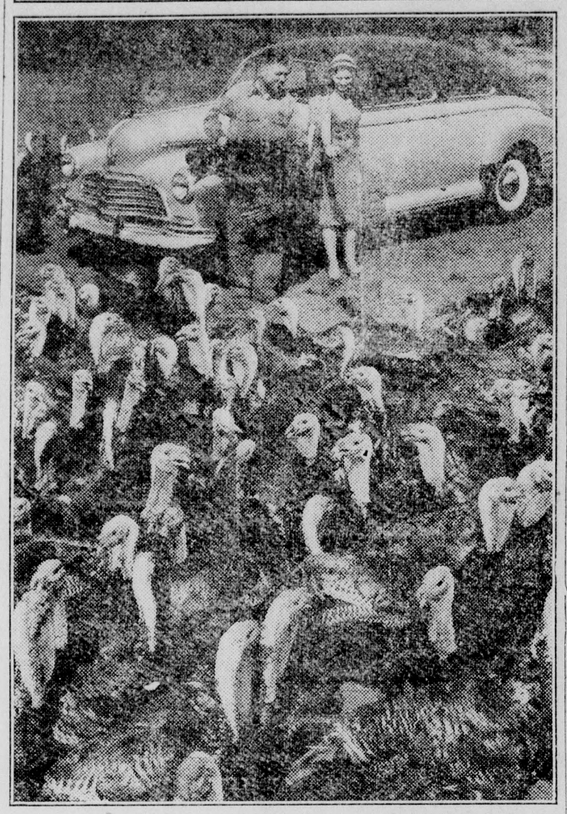

An American spokesman said afterwards that the United States was opposed to the injection of the inspection issue into the troop census discussions, which are now before the committee, and that the American delegation would vote against the British proposal.

Connally said any report on armed forces should include personnel on duty with "any type of military organization" anywhere in the world and then added:

"We must face and face now the subject of general disarmament. What is the use of a little slice of pie? We realize there must be a system of inspection and implementation. He proposed it for atomic energy and we are prepared to apply it to the whole problem."

On the troop inventory question Connally suggested that all data be submitted to the secretary-general instead of the security council, as proposed by Russia, but agreed with Russia that the information should be as of Nov. 1, 1946.

"Last Roundup" Before Thanksgiving

An abundant turkey crop for 1946 promises that the nation will observe Thanksgiving in the established tradition. But not every family will dine on a gobbler chosen "on the hoof." Pretty Marlyss Pascoe, of Detroit, Mich., made sure of her selection by driving her new Chevrolet out to Shady Valley Farms, one of the largest turkey farms in the country, where Orville M. Felmlee assisted in the selection.

Find His Car, Loses His Love

OKLAHOMA CITY. AP—There was little joy for the owner in the recovery of an automobile he reported stolen.

Detectives found the auto parked in front of a bus station. Inside, pinned to the seat, was a note, saying:

"I have gone to California. We never would have made it anyway. Ann."

Ann, the officers theorized, borrowed the boy friend's auto to drive to the bus station — and went on to California.
